

Packing Guidelines

Clothing

It's camp! It's also outdoors and in the mountains, so as you're choosing clothes to pack, keep in mind that they'll probably get dirty, they may get stained, and they may even get torn, but the memories made will be worth far more than the clothes worn.

- Jeans, capris, loose fitting sweats.
  - No shorts, leggings or yoga pants.
  - All pants, capris, skirts, or dresses must cover knees and should not be too low on hips or too tight).
- T-shirts are the most suitable wear for the active atmosphere of camp's daily routine.
  - No tank tops, tight, low-cut, or midriff type tops.
  - No clothing with inappropriate designs, slogans or images.
  - A camper may be asked to change if clothing is deemed inappropriate.
- Shower House Attire– Keep in mind campers can be seen traveling to and from cabins to shower house. Long, basketball style shorts with suitable shirts and “shower shoes” are suggested attire.
